GOLDEN KAPERS

Carolyn Warner, Editor

MR. M. HUGH SHAW

We the class of 1964 dedicate this edition of Golden Kapers to a devoted man and teacher, Mr. Hugh Shaw. This man has been much more to us than just a teacher. He is our friend and counselor. For two years Mr. Shaw was our class sponsor, and through his whole-hearted co-operation and tireless efforts we accomplished a great deal. He is a guiding light to us seniors and someone whom we respect and admire. Because of all these things, Mr. Shaw, we dedicate our annual to you.

Our 1964 yearbook is published in memory of the 35th President of the United States.

Poem:

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I--
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Class Will

I, Kenneth Knipfer, would will my nickname "Banger" to Gary Sorden, but he already has it.

I, Linda Fredericksen, will my ability to be on time to Jane Evans.

I, Darcy Brown, will my Spanish-speaking ability to no one, because Mr. Selgeby couldn't bear another one like me.

I, Rowena Dobbins, will my ability to read notes to the freshman trombone players.

I, Virginia Hall, will my ability to talk fast to Donnie Dixon. With all of his girl friends, he's going to need it.

I, Michelle Gilmore, will my diets to Trudy Reed.

I, Helen Westfall, will my ability to get along with Ronnie to Donnie.

I, Mickey Yoss, will all my Sigourney trips and my '51 Chevy to Glen Davisson. Hope you have more gas money than I did.

I, Jim Lee, will my nickname "Thunderroad" to Greg McKay.

I, Richard Fry, will my streak of orneriness to Myron Stoner.

I, Connie Fehlberg, will my basketball shoes to my sister Charlene. Don't forget to patch up the holes.

I, Shirley Murphy, will nothing to my sister Peggy, because she has everything of mine anyway.

I, Kathy Coffman, will an extra-large bottle of aspirin to the faculty of E.V. for all the headaches I've caused them.

I, Kathy Sauter, will the keys to all the different cars I've driven to school to Ed, so he can keep everybody guessing next year about what car he's driving.

I, Gerald Johnston, will my ability to drive to Vickie Van Dee. She needs all the help she can get.

I, Darrell Aldrich, will my contest winning orange sox to anyone who has nerve enough to wear them.

I, Becky Casady, will my height to Marsha Pacholke in hopes that it will come in handy sometime to help her reach greater heights.

I, Francis Johnston, will my summer job with Mr. Shaw and Mr. Ackerman to Pam Johnston. They need the feminine touch.

I, Richard Peirce, will my ability to sleep in Mrs. Hurst's class to Jerry Foubert. Now you can stay up late at night, Jerry.

I, Max Colbert, would like to will my girl friend Connie, but I find it impossible.

I, John Mertz, will my chair in the back row of College Prep class to John Harris. Don't give Mrs. Hurst too bad a time.

I, Donna Miller, will my one-third of the Chevy to Ronnie and Lyle. Might as well keep it in the family.

I, Maxine Casteel, will my cheerleading garter to Ron Miller, too bad they're censored Scoop.

I, Georgia Newman, will the road just east of my house to Pam Stoner. Take good care of it "Red."

I, Lonnie Garringer, will my nickname "Buck" to Mike Blaylock. Don't use it in Harper, though.

I, John O'Rourke, will my ability to get along with the waitress who works in the Alcove Cafe in Cedar Rapids to nobody, because I want to keep it myself.

I, Daryl Newberry, will my nickname "Newt" to my little baby brother.

I, Jerry Dennis, will one of my many nicknames, "Speedy Gonzolas," to Mike Johnston. Watch out, Mike, it might catch up with you!

I, Cheryl Holeton, will my saying "Oh, pickles!" to Pam Cavanaugh. Dill pickles are the best, Pam!

I, John Reed, will my ability to get into the middle of basketball riots against H.L.V. to Cheryl Zimmerman.

I, Greg Brower, will my trampoline abilities, especially my back flip, to Larry Lown. Good luck, Larry.

I, Virginia Gilchrist, will my ability to barely make it to school to John Hester. You might be tardy, but at least you get to sleep a little longer.

I, Sam Wade, will my '49 Plymouth to Sandy Chittick. Just don't park it by convertibles.

I, Nancy Rusbult, will my job as chauffeur to Linda Greiner. Now drive carefully Linda.

I, Louise Smith, will my ability to break sewing machine needles to Marlene Rowe. Don't run the bill up too high, Marlene.

I, Jack Winegarden, will my name "Fudgie" to Arthur Peck. Take it with a smile.

I, Karen Denison, will my ability to keep quiet in class to my brother David.

I, Carolyn Warner, will to Linda Grove the free throws I have made but not the ones I missed.

I, John Lown, will my ability to play basketball to Randy Blaylock. Good Luck!!

I, Vance Hall, will to Connie Holden one of her father's pitch forks to clean after her own horse for the remaining time she's home.

I, John Glanz, will to cheerleader Sue Boley my hairy legs. They may be less shapely than her own, but they'll keep her warmer next football season.

I, Linda Snakenberg, will my ability to borrow things to Donna Snakenberg. Sorry I won't be home for you to borrow my things, Donna.

I, David Yoss, will whatever little ambition I may have sometimes to Kenny Miller. He needs it.

I, James Ritchie, will my gracious conduct in study hall to Jack Lawrence. Amen!

I, Janice Netser, will my scarcely audible classroom voice to Mr. Huston.

I, Gary DuMont, will my desk in the back row of College Prep to anyone who wants to get into trouble with Mrs. Hurst.

I, Patty Struble, will all the fun I have had at the Sigourney dances to Maxine Morrison.

I, Kelly Newhouse, will my chair and partner in band to Darrell Seaba.

I, John Scandridge, will my ability to get along with Mr. Hurlbut to Roger Strasser.

We, The Seniors of '64, will the study time we have wasted to the underclassmen so they will have time to study.

We, the '64 Seniors, will all of the pleasure we have had in extra-curricular activities to the faculty. Don't miss too many classes.

We, the Class of '64, will to our parents all our old report cards. Please don't show them to your grandchildren.

Homecoming

HOMECOMING COURT

Rosemary Costello, Sophomore; Cindy Yoss, Freshman; Kathy Sauter, Queen; Diana Shull, Junior; Darcy Brown, Senior

The 1963 Homecoming was a very successful occasion. The night was cool and dry. The football team delighted the crowd by defeating Belle Plaine, 12-6. The highlight of the evening was the half-time crowning of Queen Kathy Sauter by Student Council President Francis Johnston. Kathy's attendants were Darcy Brown, Diana Shull, Rosemary Costello, and Cindy Yoss. The Rock 'N Flames provided the music for the Homecoming Dance held in the school gymnasium after the game.
